In connection with the decree of 2 August 1951 which established the Committee for Radiofication of Polskie Radio and defined its sphere of operations, and which transferred the radio stations of Polskie Radio to the Ministry of Post and Telegraph along with all matters concerning their construction, development and exploitation, Decree No 942 of the government Presidium establishes the Administration of Radio Stations within the Ministry of Post and Telegraph.
 The administration, established as of 1 January 1952, is located in Warsaw.

The operations of the administration include:

1. Supervision, coordination, control, and general mangement of the activity of all subject units.
2. Formulation of operational plans for subject units and supervision over execution of these plans.
3. Formulation of development plans for networks, radio communications equipment, and radio and television broadcasting equipment.
4. Cooperation with international organizations in the assignment of wave lengths, radio communication, radio broadcasting, and television.
5. Formulation of technical and material norms and of organizational instructions.
6. Planning of investments and supervision over their realization.
7. Supervision of the repair and installation of radio communication, radio broadcasting, and television equipment.
